

This country was built on free enterprise. Using laws to gain an advantage over the competition goes against everything the United States stands for. Please do not allow the the NAB the luxury of removing competition by agreeing to their anti-competitive tactics.

I as a citizen have the right to choose and purchase what I want to listen to and if XM radio offers something in competition to the NAB they should work harder to win back the customers they are losing.

Thank you

Ronald Radowich